

Fourth Edition.

THE LATEST
BEYOND THE POND.

China Prepares for a War With Japan.

Cabal Mutineers Defeated by Roberts.

China.

PREPARING FOR WAR WITH JAPAN.

National Associated Press to the Star.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Paris Golos announces that China is actively preparing to make war upon Japan and that Russia is intriguing to assist China in the matter.

Russian agents are everywhere active.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Advices have been received here which are considered trustworthy, that a fleet of Russian vessels are under sailing orders to proceed to the Japanese and Chinese waters bearing letters of marque and reprisal. This news is considered ominously suggestive to the commercial interests of Great Britain.

Great Britain.

EMIGRATION TO TEXAS.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The two hundred and sixty-seven farmers and their wives who sailed from Liverpool yesterday in the steamer Tontonia for New Orleans, on their way to Texas, are for the most part well provided with money. They are from Durham, Yorkshire, Lancashire, Cumberland, Lincolnshire and Gloucestershire.

Town Talk in Trouble.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The publisher of the Town Talk, one of the lowest and most scurrilous of so-called society newspapers of this city, has been arrested for an alleged libelous article upon Mrs. Langtry and Mrs. Cornwallis West, two well-known ladies of fashion.

Germany.

REGULATING RELIGION IN SCHOOLS.

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—The Prussian Government has prohibited the establishment of public schools where Protestantism and Catholicism are concurrently taught.

Afghanistan.

ROBERTS DEFEATS THE MUTINEERS.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Sir Frederick Roberts telegraphs to the India office as follows:

OCTOBER 11, 1879.—Hearing that some mutinous troops returning from Kohistan were strongly entrenched on a high hill behind Balahizhar, overlooking the city, I sent Gen. Massey with a strong force to a position cutting off their retreat.

Simultaneously General Baker ordered an attack on the front. General Massey reached Ahabad on the Batman road at sunset and captured in a deserted chamber, seventy-eight guns including seventeen Armstrongs. A combined attack was made upon the mutineers immediately. A dispatch from Simla says the Afghans have evacuated Balahizhar, and heavy firing was proceeding in that direction.

Possible Row with Russia.

Russia and England are corresponding respecting the future of Afghanistan. Russia objects to a permanent occupation by the British.

India.

LEGATION REACHES BRITISH TERRITORY.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—A dispatch from Calcutta says the English-Burmese mission have reached British Territory.

MEMPHIAN MISERIES.

A Spark of War Among the Howards Officials.

One Chinaman Among the Dead To-Day.

Special to the Star.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 11—12:05 P. M.—Things are warming up. The Howard President says in a card this morning that the resolutions excluding news reporters were adopted by General Smith, Acting President, after his departure for the North. Smith is called upon to explain.

Dr. Kuehn publishes a vituperative card in the Avalanche, casting severe reflections on the character of S. L. Bounds, Western Associated Press Agent. Kuehn is one of the Ex-Federal-Bogus-Appeal men.

No new cases, but 4 deaths to-day: Jacob Kantavitch, white; Sam John, Mongolian; and two colored.

PICKETT.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 11—1:30 P. M.—Two new cases, Della and Rachel Jacobs, white.

PICKETT.

MEMPHIS AGAIN DEPENDENT.

National Associated Press to the Star.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 11—9:00 A. M.—The present hot weather has warmed the yellow fever with fresh activity, and great uneasiness again prevails. It has besides given a check to the business revival and business men are again despondent. Indications of an early fall have completely vanished. The fever deaths of yesterday were all beyond the city limits, and the disease lately seems altogether to tend to the suburbs.

WASHINGTON CITY.

OHIO CLERKS COMING HOME.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The employees of the Government in this city who are entitled to vote in Ohio have been granted ten days' leave of absence to go home to cast their ballots at the coming election.

FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN FUND.

The Democratic employees of the Senate and House have made a handsome voluntary subscription to the Ohio Campaign Fund, and the amount was taken to Ohio last night.

A Noble Two Hundred.

Special to the Star.

MADISON, IND., Oct. 11.—Miss Susan B. Anthony was introduced by Hon. John Roberts, and addressed an appreciative audience, numbering two hundred, at Oddell's Hall last night.

FOOD FOR WORMS.

Horrible Murder of a Colorado Farmer.

Killed With an Ax on Bayou Bouef.

Special to the Star.

DENVER, COLO., Oct. 11.—One month ago yesterday R. B. Haywood, a prominent farmer of Logan County, was in his wagon, accompanied by two strangers, and nothing was ever seen of Haywood, strangers, wagon or team, until yesterday, when Haywood's body was found in a gulch. It had been doubled up and violently pushed under a small culvert, where it was left to decay, worms having complete possession of it when found. The neck was broken as with a club, and no doubt remains that his companions murdered him and drove off with his team. No trace of them can be discovered.

AFTER ILLICIT DISTILLERS.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Oct. 11.—Deputy Collector Clements reports from Clay County the destruction of a hundred-gallon still and the capture of Montgomery Chaney and Robert Welch, the distillers.

MURDERED WITH AN AX.

SHEEPSTOWN, LA., Oct. 11.—A colored man named Magloire, on Bayou Bouef, in St. Landry Parish, quarreled with Laurent Pierre Auguste, another colored man, and rushing to his cabin Magloire procured an ax, with which he split Laurent's head open, killing him at once.

FROM A BANK TO THE POOR-HOUSE.

NEW ALBANY, IND., Oct. 11.—Harry Lake, formerly a bank cashier and wealthy citizen of this city, is reported dying in the county jail, into which he was received Thursday night as a pauper prisoner.

DOCTOR'S HOUSE BURNED DOWN.

PULASKI, TENN., Oct. 11.—The dwelling-house of Dr. P. W. Spottswood, a handsome residence, was burned in Lawrenceburg. Supposed incendiary. Loss $2,500.

FIRE AT DAYTON THIS MORNING.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 11.—A frame house on Webster street near Water was entirely destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. Two families occupied the building, Charles Zimmerman and P. Fitzgerald. They only had time to escape from their rooms with underclothing and articles as they could find readily at hand, and nearly all their furniture was destroyed.

SCHOONER COOK DROWNED.

National Associated Press to the Star.

RACINE, WIS., Oct. 11.—Yesterday at an early hour Utter Ebert, employed as cook on the schooner Silgo, fell overboard and was drowned. The body has not yet been recovered.

OUR WESTERN WARDS.

The Ute Chiefs Advising Their People to Peace.

Sheridan Proposes to Punish the Rascals.

National Associated Press to the Star.

SOME WELL DISPOSED INDIANS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—The following dispatch was received at the Indian Office last evening:

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 10, 1879.

E. A. Hoyt, Indian Commissioner, Washington, D. C.:

I left Nintah Agency Sunday. Agent Critchlow desired me to inform you that his Indians were well disposed and remaining at the Agency. If there is any trouble there it will be a new development.

[Signed] E. H. PARSONS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The following interesting correspondence, explanatory in itself, was received yesterday by Acting Indian Commissioner Brooks:

"LOS PINOS AGENCY, COLO., Oct. 2.

"To the Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington:

"Sir—I have the honor to inclose for your information a copy of the order of Chief Ouray to the White River Utes wired you to-day, also a copy of a letter to the commanding officer of the troops at that point, with a copy of the 'Order' inclosed.

"The letter was sent at the request of Ouray by Joseph W. Brady, an employee at this agency, accompanied by an escort of a chief and Utes to the number of fifteen. Ouray's order was sent by a special runner. I also enclose a copy of a letter to the Southern Ute Agency dispatched in like manner.

"I am informed that the mail carrier at White River was killed, and therefore I took the liberty of sending you the dispatch, as I believed you would get the news quicker than in any other way.

"W. M. STANLEY, Agent."

"LOS PINOS AGENCY, COLO., Oct. 2.

"To the Chiefs, Captains, Head Men and Utes of the White River Agency:

"You are hereby requested and commanded to cease hostilities against the whites, injuring no innocent persons, or any other, further than to protect your own lives and property from unlawful and unauthorized combinations of horse thieves and desperadoes, as anything further will ultimately end in disaster to all parties.

[Signed] "CURRAN,"

"Head Chief Ute Nation."

SHERIDAN TALKS BUSINESS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The following telegram has just been received at the War Office:

"CHICAGO, Oct. 11, 1879.

"General W. T. Sherman, Washington, D. C.:

"General Crook notifies me that when all the troops now en route between Rawlins and White River Agency join General Merritt, he will have a force of 1,500 men. Instructions were sent from these headquarters to push on to the Agency, and to leave no stone unturned to punish these Indians, who attacked troops and killed the Agent and his employees, and that only their unconditional surrender should be accepted.

"P. H. SHERMAN."

"Lieutenant General."

"LOS PINOS AGENCY, COLO., Oct. 2.

"Mr. Henry Page, Agent Southern Ute Agency:

"Ours requests that I should say to you, and you to whites and Indians, that they need not fear any danger from the trouble at White River; that he wants his people, the Utes, to stay at home and lend no hand or encouragement to the White River Utes; that the troubles there will all be over in a few days; that he has sent 'Sapanero' and others to White River to stop the trouble, and that outside interference will only tend to aggravate, and will do no good.

[Signed] "W. M. STANLEY."

DARING DESPERADO.

Capture, at Paducah, of a Double Murderer.

Special to the Star.

BOWLING GREEN, KY., Oct. 11.—Sheriff Hardy, of Logan County, has arrived at Russellville with Ed. M. Clark, charged with waylaying and murdering Tom Taylor, near there, last Saturday night.

Clark had taken a boat at Weston, but a dispatch to Paducah intercepted him, and officers locked him up in his stateroom. He made no resistance, but coolly remarked if he had known who they were he could have killed the whole party.

A short time ago Clark killed a man named Horse King, but was acquitted. There was a bitter enmity between Clark and Taylor, and before Taylor died he said he believed Clark was his murderer. The next day Clark disappeared, which gave rise to the belief that he was guilty, and he was pursued and captured as above.

CORN CRACKER CURRENTS.

Knickerbockers Knocked Together in Old Kentucky.

Special to the Star.

VERSAILLES, KY., Oct. 11.—The trial of James Robinson still progresses. His long incarceration, thirty-two months in the county jail, into which he was received Thursday night as a pauper prisoner.

DOCTOR'S HOUSE BURNED DOWN.

PULASKI, TENN., Oct. 11.—The dwelling-house of Dr. P. W. Spottswood, a handsome residence, was burned in Lawrenceburg. Supposed incendiary. Loss $2,500.

FIRE AT DAYTON THIS MORNING.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 11.—A frame house on Webster street near Water was entirely destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. Two families occupied the building, Charles Zimmerman and P. Fitzgerald. They only had time to escape from their rooms with underclothing and articles as they could find readily at hand, and nearly all their furniture was destroyed.

SCHOONER COOK DROWNED.

National Associated Press to the Star.

RACINE, WIS., Oct. 11.—Yesterday at an early hour Utter Ebert, employed as cook on the schooner Silgo, fell overboard and was drowned. The body has not yet been recovered.

OUR WESTERN WARDS.

The Ute Chiefs Advising Their People to Peace.

Sheridan Proposes to Punish the Rascals.

National Associated Press to the Star.

SOME WELL DISPOSED INDIANS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—The following dispatch was received at the Indian Office last evening:

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 10, 1879.

E. A. Hoyt, Indian Commissioner, Washington, D. C.:

I left Nintah Agency Sunday. Agent Critchlow desired me to inform you that his Indians were well disposed and remaining at the Agency. If there is any trouble there it will be a new development.

[Signed] E. H. PARSONS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The following interesting correspondence, explanatory in itself, was received yesterday by Acting Indian Commissioner Brooks:

"LOS PINOS AGENCY, COLO., Oct. 2.

"To the Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington:

"Sir—I have the honor to inclose for your information a copy of the order of Chief Ouray to the White River Utes wired you to-day, also a copy of a letter to the commanding officer of the troops at that point, with a copy of the 'Order' inclosed.

"The letter was sent at the request of Ouray by Joseph W. Brady, an employee at this agency, accompanied by an escort of a chief and Utes to the number of fifteen. Ouray's order was sent by a special runner. I also enclose a copy of a letter to the Southern Ute Agency dispatched in like manner.

"I am informed that the mail carrier at White River was killed, and therefore I took the liberty of sending you the dispatch, as I believed you would get the news quicker than in any other way.

"W. M. STANLEY, Agent."

"LOS PINOS AGENCY, COLO., Oct. 2.

"To the Chiefs, Captains, Head Men and Utes of the White River Agency:

"You are hereby requested and commanded to cease hostilities against the whites, injuring no innocent persons, or any other, further than to protect your own lives and property from unlawful and unauthorized combinations of horse thieves and desperadoes, as anything further will ultimately end in disaster to all parties.

[Signed] "CURRAN,"

"Head Chief Ute Nation."

SHERIDAN TALKS BUSINESS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The following telegram has just been received at the War Office:

"CHICAGO, Oct. 11, 1879.

"General W. T. Sherman, Washington, D. C.:

"General Crook notifies me that when all the troops now en route between Rawlins and White River Agency join General Merritt, he will have a force of 1,500 men. Instructions were sent from these headquarters to push on to the Agency, and to leave no stone unturned to punish these Indians, who attacked troops and killed the Agent and his employees, and that only their unconditional surrender should be accepted.

"P. H. SHERMAN."

"Lieutenant General."

"LOS PINOS AGENCY, COLO., Oct. 2.

"Mr. Henry Page, Agent Southern Ute Agency:

"Ours requests that I should say to you, and you to whites and Indians, that they need not fear any danger from the trouble at White River; that he wants his people, the Utes, to stay at home and lend no hand or encouragement to the White River Utes; that the troubles there will all be

CIRCLE OF CITIES.

News Notes Gleaned and Garnered by Star Special Reporters.

Columbus.

PENITENTIARY AFFAIRS.

Special to the Star.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 11.—Four men were released from the Penitentiary to-day and James Morris, sent from Jackson County for three years for burglary and larceny, was received there this morning.

St. Louis.

DOG SHOW ENDED—WALK—MURDERED BY HIS STEPSON.

Special to the Star.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 11.—The dog show is over and the canines are probably glad of it, as the intense heat yesterday caused them to howl dolefully the whole day long.

Geary is still ahead in the six days walk, which closes to-night.

William Patterson, colored, forty years of age, died at his residence, No. 22 Gratiot street, yesterday, from the result of injuries inflicted upon him Thursday night by his stepson, Sam. Moore, with a slung-shot.

Moore is still at large.

Louisville.

A DOG—FANCY DRILL—COLORED ELOPES, ETC.

Special to the Star.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 11.—The pointer dog Nellie R., who lately carried off two prizes at the St. Louis bench show (entered by Mr. Enly), is the property of Dr. David W. Yandell, of this city, and comes of a noted stock of pointers.

The Chickasaw Guards and the Louisville Light Artillery give a fancy drill at the State Guard Armory to-night.

Thomas Howard, a colored youth, who persuaded a pretty white girl to elope with him is now behind the bars in jail.

The libel suit of Patton vs. The Courier-Journal has been decided in favor of the latter.

THE MICHIGAN MASHUP.

Settling with the Sufferers for Damaged Baggage.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 11.—2 P. M.—At the Michigan Central depot the work of clearing up the wreck, so far as relates to baggage and looking after those who came through on a special train, is being rapidly pushed along.

Much of the baggage found is uninjured, and delivered on demand. Adjustment of damages is made very quickly, and upon a liberal basis. The orders from General Manager Ledyard were to pay all claims at once.

The emigrants were the greatest sufferers, both as to life and property, the latter being poorly packed, most of it being in wooden boxes and chests, which would not stand much of a crash.

The emigrants go on to-day after all their claims have been settled.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Passengers who arrived last night by the ill-fated train from Jackson, have a variety of stories to tell of the horrible scenes and experiences. One man says thirty-seven bodies were taken out before he left. The latest dispatch from an official at the scene, places the number of killed at fifteen, and twenty-seven injured.

New York Stock Report.

The following shows the range of quotations and the amount of sales to-day at the New York Stock Exchange, as received by Lee, Sterrett & Co., 28 West Third street:

[Table with 5 columns: Opening, Highest, Lowest, Closing, No. shares sold]

Total shares reported sold.

The Morning Star Arrives.

National Associated Press to the Star.

OXFORD, IND., Oct. 11.—John Morningstar, of Indiana, enlisted in the army eighteen years ago, leaving a wife and daughter at home. After being wounded and discharged, he went to California, where he has since been engaged in mining. Nothing was ever heard from him at home till yesterday, when he returned a wealthy man, found his wife married again and his infant daughter a full grown woman. The town of Fowler, where they live, is greatly excited over his return. His former wife, now Mrs. Scott, is in a dilemma.

County Commissioners.

The County Commissioners held a regular meeting to-day, all of the members being present.

The weekly pay-roll was allowed.

Sheriff Weber submitted his quarterly report, the summary of which is as follows:

RECEIPTS.

Civil cases, $2,968 53

Foreign writs, 88 01

U. S. prisoners, 422 25

Hamilton County Jail, 1,612 60

Criminal cases, 394 67

Total, $5,485 06

EXPENDITURES.

Deputies, $4,580 41

Sheriff's quarterly salary, 1,250 00

Jail expenses, 1,289 78

Office expenses, 18 69

Total, $7,138 48

The Working World.

The cabinet-makers held a meeting again this morning at Arbeiter Hall. Messrs. Rapp and Grass were appointed door-keepers. The minutes were adopted as read. It was resolved that the Collection Committee meet every morning at 8 o'clock in room No. 17.

Received from the workmen of the Central Furniture Company the sum of $40. There will be a great mass meeting of all laborers to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at Arbeiter Hall. The subject to be discussed is "The Necessity of the Organization of the Union."

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been issued since our last report:

Jacob Stieb and Barbara Mutchler.

Wm. B. Groves and Flora B. Simmons.

Geo. C. Russell and Louisa Geiger.

Edward F. Hull and Lucy G. Davis.

Leopold Goth and Alice Dorsching.

John Wirth and Catherine Heiberger.

John H. Lucken and Mary M. Eggers.

Michael Maley and Kate Leonard.

Leitor Hagen and Barbara Koller.

Willis McCarter and Mary Murray.

Robberies.

A man named Jacob Gueter, from Greensburg, Indiana, had a gold watch stolen from him last night in L'Hommedieu alley by a colored woman. The watch was recovered at Lipman's pawn-office. The woman has not yet been captured.

Michael McKee, of Oil City, Pennsylvania, was robbed last night somewhere in the neighborhood of George and Central avenue of $35 in money, a silver watch and a check for $150.

Look Out for Them!

Several well-known politicians from Cincinnati were in Covington this morning making arrangements for repeaters, and for men to stand at the polls to hold tickets for their party. The ticket holders were offered $5 a day. This is authentic and comes from a man who knows whereof he speaks.

By the boiling over of a varnish kettle a little before noon to-day the varnish establishment of John Pfaff & Co., No. 606 Central avenue, was set on fire. An alarm was sounded from Box 123, and the engines responding promptly, a large conflagration was avoided. The loss amounts to about $25.

Daniel Edward, one of the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coleman, 500 West Eighth street, died this morning from croup, and will be buried to-morrow.

The alarm from Box 234 about noon to-day was occasioned by a trifling fire down on the River Road. It was extinguished with one bucket of water.

Seventy-five marriage licenses were issued during the past week.

Exposition Notice.

After taking in all the wonders of the Exposition, call at Lou. Strasser's, 150 W. Fourth street, and take in some of his wonderful fine cigars.

BEST SMOKE IN THE CITY.

Read what Professors Wayne and Fennel say of Weber's celebrated Lager Beer, on the 8th page.

Died.

RUSSELL—On Tuesday evening, October 7th, 1879, on Mt. Adams, Eliza Russell, daughter of J. and Kate Russell, aged 17 years.

Deep in our hearts now lonely.

Grief's dark arrow has found its way;

Death has robbed us of our treasure,

Darling Eliza passed away.

1